Dear Criminal Justice Council Partner,

The Delaware Criminal Justice Council is pleased to announce that they are accepting nominations for the 2017 Joseph R. "Beau" Biden III Outstanding Criminal Justice Program Award.

Known for his dedication to serving others, this award is rightfully named in honor of Joseph R. "Beau" Biden III, Delaware's former Attorney General and honors a CJC program that merits recognition for providing effective services to address crime related issues in their communities and in the State of Delaware.

As a current or recent past sub-grantee, you are invited to nominate your program or another program that you are aware of that exemplifies excellence in improving the criminal justice system or provides outstanding services in our communities.

Nomination forms and more information, including submission deadlines can be found at <http://cjc.delaware.gov/>.

Thank you for your dedication and continued commitment to improving the criminal justice system and bettering the lives of our citizens.

If you have questions about the "Beau" Biden Award, please contact Chuck Pugh at 302 752-3349 or CJC at 302 577-5030.

Sincerely,
